Pegalis & Erickson, LLC Settle $10 Million Dollar Medical Negligence Case

July 23, 2018, Lake Success, NY... The New York personal injury law firm Pegalis & Erickson, LLC announces that we have secured a $10 million dollar settlement in the Supreme Court for Bronx County. The medical error case was on behalf of our client who suffers from a permanent state of paralysis from the waist down. Trial team Steven Pegalis, James Baydar and Sanford Nagrotsky argued that the doctors and hospital failed to properly monitor our client during surgery. It was our contention that the defendants departed from the standard of care utilizing unqualified monitoring technics and personnel during surgery, and did not have a qualified physician supervising the process.

The injury occurred in 2008 when the plaintiff was undergoing back surgery. "When our client immigrated to the U.S. for good medical care as a young man of 21, he did not envision living life in a wheel chair. As a result of our work together he will obtain the services he needs to live day-to-day, and we hope, make healthcare safer for others," said Sanford Nagrotsky, Esq.

"This $10 million-dollar settlement exemplifies the skill and experience of our team in successfully resolving even the most complex cases. Our clients need financial help, want to learn the truth, and make care safer for others. We help them achieve these goals," noted Steven E. Pegalis.
